

Names and Faces

Sharon Hall tops at Anderson Group

Sharon Hall, a Realtor with Anderson Group Real Estate, was the top salesperson for August, according to Nola Anderson, broker/owner of the firm: "Sharon has shown diligence in her seven years of real estate sales," said Anderson.

"She works tirelessly in keeping up with the perilous market out there. She has achieved designations for ABR (Accredited Buyer Representative), CRS (Certified Residential Specialist) and GRI (Graduate Realtor Institute)."

"Her reputation in homes of distinctive sales is known amongst her peers. She treats all her clients as if they are family. We are proud to have this professional on our team," said Anderson.

Hall was born and raised in Chicago in a family with two sisters and two brothers. The Midwest environment provided a base for her work ethic and values to strive for excellence.

After college, she worked as an assistant manager for health and exercise clubs and became area director of Richard Simmons' Clubs.

"My passion for physical excellence drove me to start the step program as a certified aerobic instructor," Hall said.

Involvement in winter sports led her to certification as a ski instructor and patrol member for many years. In the summer, she competed in water ski events.

Her two sons are Arizona State University graduates. She is an avid tennis player and low handicap golfer.

Hall can be contacted at the Anderson Group Real Estate office in Safeway Plaza by directly calling (480) 861-7707 or the office number at (480) 837-1331.

